Am a new creation, am a brand-new man. Old things are passed away, I walk in newness of life; Am more than conquerors, that is what I am. Am a new creation, am a brand-new man!

Part 26: God's Progressive Revelation as Your Relationship Deepens

Text: Exodus 6:3

“³ I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob as God Almighty, but by My name the LORD, I did not make myself fully known to them.”

The core implication of Exodus 6:3 is that the patriarchs (Abraham, Isaac, Jacob) knew God's power, but Israel was about to experience His personal presence. It marks a massive shift from a relationship based on future promises to one based on present rescue and active fulfillment. However, the coming of Jesus Christ marks a transition into a relationship of ultimate accessibility, perfect clarity, and direct family adoption.

Yet, some Christians still operate at level of Knowing God's power (future promises) or at best. experiencing His personal presence (present rescue, saying “oh God just rescued me”, INSTEAD OF ultimate accessibility, perfect clarity, and direct family adoption (enjoying God's proactive action)).

Proactive action is why God says:

- Before you call, I answer you
- Don't worry about what to say, and how to say it. Holy Spirit will tell you.
- Holy Spirit will lead you unto all truths and will help all your weaknesses.

WHY WOULD ANYONE LOSE THIS FATHER-CHILD RELATIONSHIP?

Part 26: God's Progressive Revelation as Your Relationship Deepens

Abraham, Isaac, Jacob were evaluated or judged based on what God had made available to them.

Isaiah 41:8: God refers to Abraham as "my friend."

2 Chronicles 20:7: King Jehoshaphat reminds God of Abraham, describing him as "your friend forever."

James 2:23: The New Testament confirms that because Abraham believed God, it was credited to him as righteousness, and "he was called God's friend."

Yet, God recognized that going to His people at "power" (future promises) was not enough, He decided to instead, offer His "personal presence" so that He can mediate in the affairs of men. This is what Moses experienced as he led the children of Israel out to Egypt to the promised land.

This is progressive revelation—God showing deeper parts of His character as human history unfolded.

Part 26: God's Progressive Revelation as Your Relationship Deepens

Example

- To Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob (El-Shaddai): God revealed Himself as "God Almighty, the God of supreme power who makes grand promises. The patriarchs needed to know God could sustain them, protect them, and multiply their families while they lived as wandering nomads. They lived by faith in a future promise, e.g promised land, father of many nations

- To Moses and Israel (Yahweh): The name LORD (Yahweh) is tied directly to God's active, unchanging presence and the fulfillment of those promises. Abraham heard the promises, but Moses and the Exodus generation were chosen to see them actually happen.

Knowing God's person implies a deep relationship a shift from a relationship based on future promises to one based on present rescue and active fulfillment.

- Now comes the level for Christians due to coming of Jesus Christ.

- The Ultimate Shift: The Coming of Jesus Christ

Another massive shift in how God reveals Himself, a total transformation of the relationship. – from active fulfillment to embodiment.

From "No One Can See Me" to "Look at Me" (Human Face

Part 26: God's Progressive Revelation as Your Relationship Deepens

The Exodus: God's presence was terrifying. When God spoke His name 'Yahweh', Moses hid his face, and the people trembled at a smoking mountain. God explicitly stated, "You cannot see my face, for no one may see me and live" (Exodus 33:20).

With Jesus: God puts on a human face. The Bible calls Jesus "Immanuel", meaning "God with us" (Matthew 1:23). God's character becomes eye-level and touchable. As Jesus said, "Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father" (John 14:9).

With Moses and Exodus, the relationship at Sinai was a "covenant of law" God was the King, and Israel was His subject nation. It was a formal, corporate relationship.

Jesus shifts the dynamic from a courtroom to a living room.

He tells His followers they are no longer just servants obeying blindly, but "friends" (John 15:15) well informed. Believers got right to call the Creator *"Abba, Father" (Romans 8:15).

It is sad, therefore, that some Christians don't realize or harness this progressive relationship.

By being in the living room, you are filled with Holy Spirit and move from:

- a Mediated Presence to an Indwelling Presence
- God living 'near' His people to God living "inside" His people

Part 26: God's Progressive Revelation as Your Relationship Deepens

- Your very body becomes His temple (1 Corinthians 3:16)
God is now the one directing your path, your ways. and your life.

Before they call, I will answer; while they are still speaking, I will hear (Isaiah 65:24)
Don't worry about what to say, and how to say it. Holy Spirit will tell you.
Holy Spirit will lead you unto all truths and will help all your weaknesses.

WHY WOULD ANYONE LOSE THIS FATHER-CHILD RELATIONSHIP?

Bredren, just like God tells us to “continue to work out your salvation with fear and trembling” (Philippians 2:12), let us mindfully work out our relationship with intentionality, realizing the three-levels of progression.

God Bless You.
